

PAYMENT, CANCELLATION, AND FEES

Fees

All sessions last approximately 50 minutes. Fees for 50-minute sessions are based on customary rates for counselors, therapists, and mediators in the Bay Area. In certain circumstances, we offer a sliding scale.

Cancellation

We require at least 48 hours advance notice, otherwise you will be charged full-price for a cancelled session. Of course, more notice is always appreciated.

Insurance Claims

While we do not participate in any managed care networks, some insurance plans do provide coverage for wellness and alternative services provided by professionals. We ask that you inquire into the presence or absence of coverage for our work together prior to engaging us. While we do not bill insurance companies directly, we are happy to provide statements that can be used for filing claims.
